Mr. President:

Costanza, Kraft, Jagoda, ^aPowell and Eizenstat concur with Greg, generally.

Eizenstat, Kraft and Jagoda all like the televised Q&A with young people. Kraft suggest $\frac{1}{2}$ hour rather than an hour. Jagoda observes that he has been discussing this idea with ABC and TV Guide for some months. All like the timing, in relation to other presidential activities planned for the August-October period, and the "back to school" theme.

Kraft likes the idea of dropping in on a youth conference. Eizenstat, however, thinks that we should have a firm idea of what kinds of recommendations would come out of such a conference, and who would participate, before any decisions are made.

MEMORANDUM FOR: The President
FROM: Greg Schneiders Greg
SUBJECT: Youth Participation Day and a
"Young Americans Meet President
Carter" Television Special

SUMMARY

In order to begin the process of the political re-entry of American youth and to demonstrate the President's personal sensitivity and responsiveness to this constituency it is proposed that:

- a) Saturday, September 10 be designated Youth Participation Day and
- b) on the evening of that day a one hour television special of discussions between the President and a group of young people be aired.

To date, we have not made any significant public attempt to arouse the interest or capture the spirits of the young people of this country.

I. YOUTH PARTICIPATION DAY

There would be two key elements to Youth Participation Day:

- a) A full-day "mini-conference" at the White House or Camp David on the need for and the means of youth participation in government. Cabinet Members, Agency Heads, Congressional Leaders and White House Staff would lead and participate in the discussions. President Carter would participate in the final hour of the program which would be televised. Entertainment and social sessions would be included in the program.

Electrostatic Copy Made for Preservation Purposes

b) The television special described below.

II. YOUNG AMERICANS MEET PRESIDENT CARTER

The Teachers Guide to Television magazine and ABC television are interested in producing an hour long special or "news event" involving a discussion of issues between President Carter and a representative sampling of 15 or 20 young Americans.

The participants could be selected from among the attendees at the mini-conference who, in turn, could be selected by the educational associations from each of the fifty states.

The youth television broadcast, which for many months I have been discussing with ABC and the indicated magazine, would stand on its own but could also be incorporated into Greg's overall youth effort. Advance preparation by the President would be minimal and the idea could be seen as a "back-to-school" event.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

STU EIZENSTAT Stu

SUBJECT:

Schneiders' Memo re Youth Participation

I strongly agree with Greg that a major youth initiative this fall would be useful.

However, I have some questions about designating a "Youth Participation Day." It may sound like we are trying too hard at public relations.

Instead, I would suggest that early this fall you engage in the kind of television discussion with young people that Greg recommends or an alternative such as a youth call-in.

I have no objection to a "mini-conference" on Youth Participation but think that before such a conference is held that we should have a firm idea of the kinds of recommendations that would come out of such a conference, and a firm idea on an equitable way to choose the participants.

It seems to me that we can move quietly to increase the involvement of young people with you and the government, but that we should avoid making too much of this until clear success can be demonstrated.

Constanza, Kraft, Jagoda and Eizenstat concur.

Jagoda says she has been discussing the idea of the youth TV broadcast with ABC and TV Guide for many months; this idea would be a good "back to school" event, and would stand on its own with or without Gerg's other ideas.

Kraft likes ~~the-idea~~ Greg's idea - dropping by a youth conference, and televised Q&A. He suggests half-an-hour rather than an hour. Kraft thinks the timing proposed is good, ~~with-no-presidential~~ in relation to other presidential activities scheduled for August-September-October.

Stu ~~also--~~ likes the idea of a televised discussion with young people (or alternatives such as a youth call-in) but questions a "Youth Participation Day" -- sounds too much like a public relations gimmick. Stu also suggests that before any "youth conference" would be held, there should be firm ideas on what kinds of recommendations would come out of it, and who would participate.'

Eizenstat, Kraft and Jagoda all like the televised Q&A with people people. Kraft suggests half and hour rather than an hour. Jagoda observes that he has been discussing this idea with ABC and TV Guide for several months. All like the timing, ~~the-"back-to-school"-theme-~~ in relation to other presidential activities planned for August-October, and the "back to school" theme.

however

Kraft likes the ~~youth-conference~~ idea of dropping in on a youth conference. Eizenstat/~~wonders-whether-such-a-~~ thinks ~~conference-~~ we should have a firm idea of what kinds of recommendations would come out of such a conference, and who would participate, ~~before-one-is-plann--~~ making a decision.

FROM: BOB LIPSHUTZ GL
STU EIZENSTAT San

SUBJECT: CAB Decision: Flying Tiger Transpacific
Renewal Case (Docket 28656)

This decision (1) adds Anchorage, Singapore, Indonesia and Malaysia to Flying Tiger's all-cargo authority to the Orient, and (2) awards all-cargo authority to Pan American from Detroit, Chicago and Seattle to the Orient.

The interested agencies agree that the award to Flying Tiger should be approved. State and Transportation, however, are concerned about the award to Pan Am, particularly that portion granting cargo rights between Seattle and the Orient.

Some background information is necessary to appreciate the agencies' position:

1) In addition to the present case--which deals only with cargo service--the CAB is now completing the preliminary stages of the Seattle-Japan Service Investigation which covers passenger as well as cargo authority.

2) There are now two American carriers operating between Seattle and Japan; approval of this order would add a third.

3) It is unlikely that Japan would agree to more than three American carriers flying the Seattle-Japan route.

On the basis of these considerations, State and DOT fear that approving this order could jeopardize the award of passenger and cargo rights to another carrier following the Seattle-Japan Service Investigation.

Despite the agencies' concerns, we recommend that you approve the entire CAB order in this case--including the Seattle-Orient portion of the award to Pan Am. Approval would provide for increased cargo competition out of Seattle. It is unclear, moreover, whether our negotiating posture with the Japanese would be harmed. (A State official has informally indicated that the "bargaining chip" of a Pan Am cargo route could be useful during future negotiations for increased passenger/cargo service between Seattle and Japan.)

The CAB has entered an order which would increase competition. Unless there are compelling reasons to the contrary, such awards should normally be upheld. The reasons advanced by State and DOT, while not frivolous, are not sufficiently compelling as to justify overturning a pro-competition award.

We recommend approval of the entire Board decision. That is, we recommend that you approve:

- 1) Flying Tiger award ☐ Approve ☐ Disapprove
 - 2) Detroit-Orient Pan
Am award ☐ Approve ☐ Disapprove
 - 3) Chicago-Orient Pan
Am award ☐ Approve ☐ Disapprove
 - 4) Seattle-Orient Pan Am award (This is the only controversial award.) ☐ Approve ☐ Disapprove
- all
ok*

(All awards may be approved by signing at Tab 1.)

* * * * *

RELEVANT ONLY IF AN AWARD IS DISAPPROVED:

If you choose to disapprove the Seattle-Orient Pan Am award, or any of the other three awards, we will prepare the necessary papers. Technically, all four awards are now embodied in one order. Therefore, if you wish to disapprove the Seattle-Orient Pan Am award but approve the other three, you must direct the Board to prepare a new order which you can sign. Such a directive could either (1) simply disapprove the Seattle award, or (2) remand the Seattle award for further consideration in light of the CAB's pending Seattle-Japan Service Investigation.

☐ Simply disapprove
Seattle award; letter to be prepared

☐ Remand Seattle award

MEMORANDUM FOR:

THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

MARGARET COSTANZA mc

SUBJECT:

The Controversy Surrounding the Construction of the Gymnasium at Kent State University

This memorandum provides information about the ongoing controversy surrounding the construction of a gymnasium at Kent State University and about my recent involvement in the controversy.

1. The Board of Trustees of Kent State University in Ohio have contracted to build a gymnasium complex on the University grounds on or near the site where the students were shot by the Ohio National Guard on May 4, 1970. Kent State is a private University. Construction was to begin on July 13, 1977.
2. A group of Kent State students, and outside supporters including two sets of parents of killed and wounded students (Martin Scheuer and wife and Albert Canfora and wife), formed "May 4 Coalition" and demonstrated against the construction of the building because they believe that the building will desecrate the site of the shootings and will destroy pertinent evidence in ongoing litigation against the University.
3. The University went to the State court and got an injunction to remove the students from the location. The judge additionally issued an order restraining construction until completion of a court hearing which is to take place on Thursday, July 21, 1977.
4. The demonstration ended peacefully through negotiation. On Tuesday, July 12, 1977, per the negotiations, 194 people were arrested peacefully.
5. The principal people in the controversy are
 - a. Nine members of the Board of Trustees. The Chairman of the Board is George Janik;
 - b. University President Glenn Olds who is retiring today, July 15, 1977, but who will continue to play a role in the hearings surrounding the construction of the gymnasium;
 - c. Alan McKittrick, Sheriff of Portage County;

July 15, 1977

- d. Robert Mallone, Chief of Security at the University; and
- e. Alan Canfora, student leader of the Coalition,

6. There is an attempt in process to have the site declared an Historic landmark by the State or the Federal Government. But that process is lengthy and probably not enforceable against a private institution.

7. On Wednesday, July 13, I was approached by Dr. James Laue, Director of the Community Conflict Resolution Program of the University of Missouri to have you or your representative intercede to assure a peaceful conclusion to the controversy. He, and those most concerned, believe that another demonstration will result from the conclusion of the July 21 hearings, and that the demonstration could be violent unless the situation is defused before then. Dr. Laue suggested that perhaps both sides were ready for outside mediators to help negotiate a settlement. He gave me the name of three private mediation groups which would be available to mediate at their own expense. He suggested that Community Relations Services at the Justice Department is best equipped to help negotiate a settlement. He indicated that C.R.S. does have jurisdiction to enter into any situation where unrest is imminent.

8. On Thursday, July 14, I called Glenn Olds, President of the University, George Janik, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and student leader Alan Canfora to congratulate them on the peaceful conclusion of the demonstration.

George Janik told me that he tried to contact you by telephone on Sunday, July 10. He was told that neither you nor any of your aides were available.

Alan Canfora had considered placing a call to you as well. Both believed that some action by you or your representatives is necessary and would greatly increase the chances of defusing the situation. Canfora fears at best an unpredictable situation, and at worst, an uncontrollable situation, on July 21 when people from outside the University join the demonstration planned for that day. He therefore hopes that some initial steps to settlement take place before then.

I suggested that they consider bringing in outside mediators to negotiate a settlement. Both Janik and Canfora seemed very open to the idea.

I gave them the names of the three private mediation groups. I did not suggest contact with C.R.S. in order to keep federal involvement to a minimum.

July 15, 1977

9. After the call I was informed that the Judge is considering calling for a negotiated settlement on July 21. The local people, however, are beginning to pressure the judge to come down hard on the students.

10. I believe that we are in a position to help solve a problem with our minimal intervention before the problem turns into a crisis.

Although the controversy may now be viewed as a purely internal state dispute, I believe that the predicted escalation may end in a crisis which could be set at our doorstep for a number of reasons.

---In the minds of most people, the Kent State shootings are associated with the Federal Government because of the Ohio National Guard's involvement in 1970.

---The openness of this Government encourages a climate for demonstrations against perceived injustices, and encourages the aggrieved to apply to you for recourse.

I will keep you informed of further developments.

Re: President's Award for Distinguished

The attached was returned in the President's outbox and is forwarded to you for your information and appropriate action.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Mr. President:

Eizenstat, Lipshutz and Jordan concur.

Eizenstat agrees particularly with Campbell's suggestion that criteria for the awards be modified to permit recognition of persons at lower as well as higher levels.

Greg Schneiders agrees that the award should be reestablished on a regular basis; however, he thinks that the board should be abolished, because:

- you are attempting to reduce the number of advisory boards
- selection of nominees by the board is a cumbersome process
- the President might be constrained by the recommendations of the board
- Cabinet officers may yield to a bias on behalf of their own employees -- or overcompensate for it

Greg recommends, instead, that the award process be similar to the Medal of Freedom selection:

- selections are solicited
- Campbell would review, and submit to the President 15-20 possibilities

(NOTE: Although the memo is dated 6/20, it did not actually leave C.S.C. until July 8.)

To further your interest in involving Federal employees in improving Government operations and in recognizing those who are truly outstanding, I recommend that an existing means, the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service, be reestablished on a regular basis. Unfortunately, this honorary award was not granted consistently during the previous administration.

This award was established by President Eisenhower in 1957 by Executive Order 10717 (copy attached). As the highest honor which can be granted to members of the Federal career service, this award affords the President the opportunity to recognize career employees for their outstanding service to the Government. I have attached a list of previous recipients ~~along with a copy of a ceremonial booklet from the last presentation of the awards.~~

The Executive Order provides for the President to appoint a five-member Board of Federal officials to advise him on criteria and selections, with the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, or his designated representative, serving as Executive Secretary. Because this award previously has been granted only to individuals in senior positions within the career service, I would recommend that ~~the new Board consider modifying the criteria to~~ permit recognition of persons at lower as well as higher levels. ok

Actions needed to reestablish this award are contained in the attached timetable. Also attached is information concerning the composition of previous Boards. I would recommend consideration be given to the appointment of the following Board members:

Charles L. Schultze	- General Government
Clifford L. Alexander, Jr.	- Defense
Richard C. Atkinson	- Science
Joseph A. Califano, Jr.	- Social Services
Juanita M. Kreps	- Commerce

We will be proud to play a part in the conferring of this important honor and, with your approval of the proposed timetable and the appointment of Board members, we will be pleased to work with the White House and the appointed Board to assure the success of this program.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 11, 1977

FOR: Rick Hutcheson

FROM: Greg Schneiders Guy

SUBJECT: Chairman Campbell's Memorandum of July 8
re: President's Award for Distinguished
Federal Civilian Service.

1. I agree that the award should be re-established on a regular basis.
2. I think the Board should be abolished because:
 - a) The President is committed to reducing the number of advisory boards.
 - b) Selection of nominees by a board of this type would be a cumbersome process.
 - c) It is possible that the President would be under pressure to award the honor to someone not of his choosing because of a unanimous recommendation of the board. If the recommendations were to become public there would be further potential for embarrassment.
 - d) Cabinet Secretaries and Agency Heads may yield to a bias on behalf of their own employees or, worse still, may over-compensate for it.
3. Nominations for the award could be chosen by a process similar to the recent Medal of Freedom selection: i.e. suggestions would be solicited from all appropriate quarters; Chairman Campbell and his staff would review the suggestions and provide the President with the names and backgrounds of the 15 or 20 individuals they recommend; the names of all the others who were suggested could be attached for the President's review; the President would select from the list of 15 or 20 names or the larger list, if he so chose, those individuals to receive the award.

4. I agree with the timetable with the obvious adjustments required if the Board is eliminated.
5. No individual in the Federal Civil Service deserves recognition more than Ernie Fitzgerald (the C5A whistle blower) at the Department of Defense.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

FROM: STU EIZENSTAT Stu
STEVE SIMMONS SS

SUBJECT: President's Award for Distinguished
Federal Civilian Service

We support Alan Campbell's recommendation that the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service be reestablished on a regular basis.

We want to especially note Chairman Campbell's recommendation that the new awards "Board consider modifying the criteria to permit recognition of persons at lower as well as higher levels." Previous Award recipients have come from the upper ranks of the Federal Service.

Although there are departmental awards that recognize Federal employee service at lower GS levels, there is no such government-wide award program with Presidential involvement similar to the Distinguished Federal Civilian Service program. In light of this Administration's concerns for all levels of society, it is especially important that if the President is involved in an awards system, it has a wider focus. This can be done under the existing Executive Order. We urge you to specifically support the awards Board modifying its criteria in accord with this concept, as Chairman Campbell suggests.

FOR DISTINGUISHED FEDERAL CIVILIAN SERVICE

THE PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED

Executive Order 10717 as amended by E. O. 10979 and E. O. 11085

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Government Employees' Incentive Awards Act, approved September 1, 1954 (68 Stat. 1112), and as President of the United States, it is ordered as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby established an honorary award for the recognition of distinguished service by civilian officers and employees of the Federal Government. The award shall be known as the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service, and shall consist of a gold medal, the design of which accompanies and is hereby made a part of this Order, suspended on a ribbon of appropriate material and color, and accompanying appurtenances. Each medal shall be suitably inscribed, and an appropriate citation shall accompany each award.

Section 2. (a) The President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service shall be presented by the President to civilian officers or employees of the Federal Government for the best achievements having current impact in improving Government operations or serving the public interest. These achievements shall exemplify one or more of the following:

- (1) Imagination in developing creative solutions to problems of government.
- (2) Courage in persevering against great odds and difficulties.
- (3) High ability in accomplishing extraordinary scientific or technological achievement, in providing outstanding leadership in planning, organizing, or directing a major program of unusual importance and complexity, or in performing an extraordinary act of credit to the Government and the country.
- (4) Long and distinguished career service.

(b) The importance of the achievements to the Government and to the public interest shall be so outstanding that the officer or employee is deserving of greater public recognition than that which can be accorded by the head of the department or agency in which he is employed. Generally, not more than five awards shall be made in any one year. Presentation of the award shall be made at such times as the President may determine.

Section 3. There is hereby established the Distinguished Civilian Service Awards Board (hereinafter referred to as the Board), which shall consist of five members, appointed by the President from the Federal civilian service. The Chairman of the Board shall be designated by the President from the membership of the Board.

Section 4. The members of the Board shall serve at the pleasure of the President.

Section 5. The members of the Board shall serve as such without additional compensation. The Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, or his designated representative, shall serve as Executive Secretary of the Board, and the Civil Service Commission is requested to furnish the Board the necessary staff and other services.

Section 6. The Board shall advise and assist the President in the selection of persons to whom the award shall be tendered. In performing its functions, the Board shall carefully review recommendations submitted to it and decide which of them, if any, warrant presentation to the President, and shall transmit to the President, for his consideration, the names of those persons deemed by it to merit the award, together with its reasons therefor. Recipients for the award shall be selected by the President.

Section 7. The Board is authorized to prescribe the method and form for making nominations for this award, but the Board shall not recommend a nominee for the award without the concurrence of the head of the agency in which the nominee was employed at the time of the achievement for which the award is recommended.

Section 8. The Board shall be guided in the performance of its functions by the provisions of subsections (b) and (c) of section 304 of the Government Employees' Incentive Awards Act, and by any additional criteria established by the Board. Persons appointed by the President shall not be eligible for this award unless, in the opinion of the Board, they are currently serving in a career position.

Section 9. This Order shall become effective on July 1, 1957.

YOUR REFERENCE

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

To further your interest in involving Federal employees in improving Government operations and in recognizing those who are truly outstanding, I recommend that an existing means, the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service, be reestablished on a regular basis. Unfortunately, this honorary award was not granted consistently during the previous administration.

This award was established by President Eisenhower in 1957 by Executive Order 10717 (copy attached). As the highest honor which can be granted to members of the Federal career service, this award affords the President the opportunity to recognize career employees for their outstanding service to the Government. I have attached a list of previous recipients along with a copy of a ceremonial booklet from the last presentation of the awards.

The Executive Order provides for the President to appoint a five-member Board of Federal officials to advise him on criteria and selections, with the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, or his designated representative, serving as Executive Secretary. Because this award previously has been granted only to individuals in senior positions within the career service, I would recommend that the new Board consider modifying the criteria to permit recognition of persons at lower as well as higher levels.

Actions needed to reestablish this award are contained in the attached timetable. Also attached is information concerning the composition of previous Boards. I would recommend consideration be given to the appointment of the following Board members:

Charles L. Schultze	- General Government
Clifford L. Alexander, Jr.	- Defense
Richard C. Atkinson	- Science
Joseph A. Califano, Jr.	- Social Services
Juanita M. Kreps	- Commerce

We will be proud to play a part in the conferring of this important honor and, with your approval of the proposed timetable and the appointment of Board members, we will be pleased to work with the White House and the appointed Board to assure the success of this program.

Alan K. Campbell
Chairman

DR. ERNEST AMBLER

An internationally recognized scientist and scientific administrator, he has made major contributions to the field of physics and has effectively redirected National Bureau of Standards programs in such areas of high national priority as energy and materials conservation and consumer product safety.

His extraordinary accomplishments in the fields of low temperature and nuclear physics, his brilliant work which invalidated a previously accepted fundamental law of physics, and his leadership as Acting Director of the National Bureau of Standards, have been of great importance to the Nation and the world.

LAWRENCE S. EAGLEBURGER

An eminent Foreign Service Officer, he has been an outstanding leader in his profession, an uncommonly effective executive, and has made major contributions to the formulation and execution of American foreign and security policies.

He has implemented major policy initiatives, improved the operation and effectiveness of the State Department, contributed to the coordination of foreign and defense policy, and thereby helped to guide the United States through a period of rapid change in world affairs.

DR. ALFRED J. EGGERS, JR.

A distinguished scientist, he has brought scientific and technological approaches to bear on anticipating and dealing with national problems of great importance to our society.

Following an exceptional career in aeronautical research, his outstanding leadership as the first Director of the Research Applied to National Needs program resulted in contributions of substantial value in the vital areas of energy, natural resources, productivity, and the environment.

E. HENRY KNOCHE

A distinguished foreign intelligence professional and manager, his leadership, innovative resource management, and commitment to the highest principles of Government service have resulted in success for the intelligence program of the United States in the most trying of times.

His insight, integrity, and devotion to duty have consistently improved the foreign intelligence product so vital to the Nation's security and have contributed significantly to establishing a better understanding of the role of intelligence in formulating foreign policy.

DALE R. McOMBER

An exceptionally able and dedicated career administrator, he has made invaluable improvements in the Federal budget process, from formulation, to consideration in Congress, and administration.

His skill, tact, and ingenuity, in one of the most difficult and demanding positions in Government, have greatly benefited the Nation. This is exemplified by his leadership in successfully implementing within the Executive Branch the most important budget legislation in half a century, the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974.

BARBARA RINGER

The Nation's foremost authority on copyright law and international copyright issues, her efforts over a period of sixteen years were ultimately successful, as the first major copyright legislation in more than half a century was enacted by Congress on October 19, 1976.

Her energy, ability, and concern for the property rights of those who create in literature, the arts, and science have ensured continuation of that creativity, thus enhancing life for all.
